HISTORICAL NOTE.

THE WIDOWS' SOCIETY OF BETHLEHEM AND VICINITY.

Addendum to "A Brief History of the Widows' Society of Bethlehem" (v. Transactions of the Moravian Historical Society, Vol. II, pp. 49-124).

BY THE REV. A. SCHULTZE, D.D., L.H.D.

A brief history of this Beneficial Society, one of the oldest if not the oldest of its kind in this country, was published in 1880, by its Secretary. It traced the development of this venerable association, from its beginning in 1770, through 110 years of slow but steady growth in usefulness. It is now proposed to give a continuation of this history through the thirty-five years, from 1880 to the present time, to complete the record of its proceedings and to show its present status.

At the annual meeting, in July, 1880, the Secretary reported, that so far as known, there were then 227 members of the Society living and 80 widows in the care of the Society. The dividends for that year amounted to $27 for each widow, and it was the smallest sum that had been paid since 1863, owing to the unusually large number of widows, the small dividends on some stocks owned by the Society, and the small increase in membership during that year. The officers elected for the ensuing year were: Simon Rau, H. B. Luckenbach, Wm. Leibert, Ch. Belling, C. A. Luckenbach, H. S. Krause and J. C. Weber. Treasurer: Francis Rauch, and Secretary: Aug. Schultze. The assets of the Society amounted to $37,019.73.

Among the applicants for admission, during the next year, was Bro. Darius Starbuck, of Salem, N. C., 63 years old. As there was no age limit in the laws of the Society, he was admitted and after his demise, in 1887, his widow enjoyed the benefit of her husband's having joined, for twenty-two years. At the next annual meeting, however, it was resolved, that thereafter the age of admission should be limited to 60 years. The following year, the sentiment of the general meeting was expressed to the effect, that as soon as practicable, all stocks of the Society should be exchanged for either Bonds or Loans on Mortgage and the directors following out this instruction, at once disposed of $5000 stock of the L. V., Penn. R. R. and the Lehigh Coal & Navigation.

In 1884, ten widows entitled to the annuity departed this life, among them Lydia Rice, who had received her first dividend in 1833. The total membership then was 225, the number of widows 73 and the dividend to each of them $33. It was then resolved, for the first time, that an advertisement of the Society setting forth the advantages to be gained from joining this Society should be published in the Moravian and Brueder Botschafter, one-half column for three months in both papers.

In 1885, the Secretary, Bro. A. Schultze, having completed the twelfth year in that office, requested the brethren not to vote for his re-election. Accordingly, the meeting elected Bro. Julius D. Bishop as his successor. From that year on, the minutes of the general meeting were written in English, instead of German, as had been the rule from the beginning for 115 years. The following year, the new Secretary succeeded Bro. Francis M. Rauch, deceased, as Treasurer and Bro. Aug. Leibert was elected Secretary of the Widows' Society. The latter has since that year, up to date, that is for more than twenty-eight years, most acceptably filled this position, having been re-elected without opposition every year, an unprecedented record. It is characteristic for the economic and altruistic manner in which the business of this Society has ever been carried on, that, until a few years ago, no compensation whatever was given to or expected by the Secretary. The Treasurer's salary, in 1906, was raised from $25 to $50 per year, when the total amount paid out by the Treasurers, since the organization of the Society, had reached the sum of $188,661.47.

The first exception to the rule, that candidates for membership must present a doctor's certificate of good health, was made in 1885, when the three first missionaries to Alaska, Wm. Weinland, H. Kilbuck and Hans Torgersen, were received upon the testimony of the Provincial Mission Board, that according to the latest letters from these missionaries, they were all three in excellent health. Bro. Torgersen was drowned that same year in the Kuskokwim River, but his widow has been reaping the fruit of that thoughtful provision of membership until this day. It was a noteworthy coincidence, that the certificate presented the following year, upon application, to the pioneer of the Alaska Mission, Bro. A. Hartmann, of Moraviantown, Canada, then 55 years of age, bore the number 555.

A token of the confidence which the Society has in the honest and efficient management of its affairs, is given in the retention of the same officers from year to year. Thus Bro. Simon Rau was a member of the Board of Directors from 1853 to 1905, that is for 52. There was a regular annual vote by ballot, though, year after year, and in 1884 a motion was offered, that a majority of all the votes cast at the annual election be necessary to elect any one to office; but the motion was lost. Three years later, Bro. A. C. Borhek, at the general meeting, upon motion, deposited the "vote of the Society for the old members" of the Board, viz.: Directors, C. H. Belling, Aug. S. Bishop, H. B. Luckenbach, J. C. Weber, Simon Rau, J. S. Krause and Jos. A. Rice; Treasurer, J. D. Bishop, and Secretary, Aug. Leibert. This method of one member casting the vote for the Society has been followed ever since, by re-electing the former members, excepting where death or declination to serve made a change necessary. It is a curious fact, in this connection, that since the resignation of Bro. Schultze as Secretary, in 1885, no minister of the Church has been in the directing board of the Society, until 1911, when in place of Bro. A. S. Bishop, deceased, the Rev. W. N. Schwarze was elected a member of the Board of Directors.

By 1888, the assets of the Society had risen to $41,935.66, of which amount $13,700 were invested in Bond and Mortgage, $20,000 in Loans and $7909 in Stocks. Two years later, the stocks had decreased to $3507, mostly by the sale of shares of the Easton National Bank stock, which a former treasurer had rightly declared to have been, for a long time, "the hen that laid the golden eggs" of the Society.

In 1891, Aug. S. Bishop offered an addition to Section 4 of the By-Laws, which, after considerable discussion, was adopted, to wit: "However, persons desiring to be admitted to membership of the Society may, if they so elect, become such under the following regulations: Upon presenting the application for membership, he shall pay into the treasury the sum of $10. If the application is favorably received, he shall then pay $40 additional, in eight equal, consecutive monthly payments. If unfavorably received, the amount so paid in shall be refunded. Immediately after the last payment, the Board of Directors shall again make due inquiry as to bodily health and fitness of the candidate, and if such be found favorable, he shall be declared a member of the Society. If rejected, the amount he has paid shall be returned to him, less one dollar. In case of the death of the applicant before the completion of all the monthly payments, the entire amount paid in shall be refunded to his legal heirs. If he ceases to pay the monthly installments necessary for membership, any amount so paid, less one dollar, shall be refunded by the Directors."

At the general meeting of 1892, a motion was offered to the effect, that the question of the continuing of a member who may leave the Moravian Church be referred to the Board of Directors. The following year, certain amendments to Article II of the Charter were presented by the Directors and discussed by the assembly. The substance of these amendments was, "that in the future the right to benefits shall cease, both when a member of the Society ceases to be a member of the 'Church of the United Brethren,' and when the wife or widow leaves the Moravian Church." After considerable debate the further consideration of this amendment was indefinitely postponed.

A most pleasing event occurring during the year of 1893 was the receipt of a letter addressed to the Directors by Bro. Abr. S. Schropp, covering bonds to the amount of $2000, donated to the Society as a tribute to his mother, Cornelia Schropp, who had departed this life in that year and who from 1841 to 1893, for fifty-two years, had received the annuities of this Society. This liberal and thoughtful gift was accepted with hearty thanks, to be entered as "the Maria Cornelia Schropp Fund." Another widow who died in 1897 and had enjoyed the benefit of the widows' pension for fifty-two years, from 1845 to 1897, was Mrs. Eliza Cooper, of Lancaster. The capital of the Society, by 1894, had increased to $48,850.64.

During the last twenty years, from 1894-1914, nothing specially noteworthy has transpired in the affairs of the Society. It has, in its humble way, continued to give valuable help to many widows and has been steadily growing in its resources. In the membership, the high water mark was reached in 1878, when there were 230 members and 70 widows. At the annual meeting of 1914, there were reported 175 members of the Society, of whom 57 live in Bethlehem, 7 at Nazareth, 9 at Lititz, 13 at Salem, N. C., and 89 are scattering members. There are at present 69 widows, each of whom received an annuity of $44. It certainly is a good investment for a married man to pay once $50, (and nothing more,) in order to become a member of the Widows' Society and make such a provision for the benefit of his wife.

The assets, as reported at the last meeting, are: Bonds and Mortgage, $33,625.00; Other Loans, $16,899.12; Stock, $3,207.00; Cash, $3,437.84; Total, $57,168.96. The Secretary distributed a blueprint pamphlet of 18 pages, showing dividends as paid since 1879, list of widows, alphabetically arranged, and a table showing number of members received each year, since organization to 1914.

the clear yearly value or income of the messuages, houses, lands and tenements, rents, annuities and other hereditaments and real estate of the said corporation, and the interest of the money lent by the same, shall not exceed the sum of Six thousand dollars.

SECTION 3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said corporation and their successors shall have full power and authority to make, have and use one common seal, with such device and inscription as they shall think proper, and the same to break, alter and renew at their pleasure.

SECTION 4. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the following be, and they are hereby declared to be the Constitution and Fundamental Articles of the said Society, that is to say:

ARTICLES.

ARTICLE I.

The Society shall consist of those persons, being members of the Episcopal Church of the United Brethren, who shall, in the first instance, subscribe this Constitution, and of such as may hereafter be admitted as members thereof, according to the rules hereinafter prescribed.

ARTICLE II.

Candidates for membership shall be nominated either at the meetings of the Society or of the Board of Directors hereinafter appointed. The said Board of Directors shall make due inquiry as to the bodily health and fitness of the candidate, and if so many members of the Society or of the Board of Directors as shall be prescribed by the by-laws, vote in favor of admission, the candidate shall be admitted, upon complying with the other regulations which shall be prescribed for admission by the by-laws.

None but married men, who are members of the United Brethren, or who, not being such themselves, live in matrimony with a person being a member of the said Church of the United Brethren, shall be admitted as members of this Society. But only such as are members of the said United Brethren, shall have a vote upon any question respecting the concerns of this Society, or be eligible as officers of the same.

ARTICLE III.

Each member shall, at the time of his admission, and every year during the time of his membership, pay to the Treasurer, for the use of this Society, such sum or sums as shall be directed by the by-laws; and provision may be made by the by-laws, for the exemption of members reduced in their circumstances from the annual payments, during their inability.

ARTICLE IV.

The moneys paid by the members at the time of their admission or re-admission, as well as all grants, gifts, donations and bequests to this Society, shall, from time to time, be invested in productive funds, or loaned on interest, as shall be directed by the by-laws, and the interest arising on the said capital stock, as well as the yearly contributions of the members, shall be distributed to the widows, relicts of deceased members of the Society, in such a manner as shall be prescribed by the by-laws, but the said capital stock shall at all times remain entire and inviolate, as long as this Society shall exist.

ARTICLE V.

Seven Directors, a Treasurer, a Secretary and three Auditors shall be elected by ballot at the stated meeting in every year. Whenever any of the said offices shall become vacant, the vacancy shall be filled by a new election at the next stated meeting after the vacancy shall have happened, or, in case of urgency, at a special meeting of the Society, to be called for the purpose. The said seven Directors, together with the Treasurer and Secretary aforesaid, shall constitute a Board to superintend the general concerns of the Society, and, at their first meeting after each election, shall choose one of the said seven Directors as President. Provision shall be made in the by-laws for conducting the affairs of the Society, if at any time the same shall be so much reduced in number, as to make it impracticable to constitute a Board of Directors, as herein before directed.

ARTICLE VI.

The duties of all the officers shall be such as are implied in their titles, and shall be prescribed by the by-laws.

ARTICLE VII.

The Society shall hold its stated meeting on the first Thursday in the month of July, in every year. Adjourned and special meetings may be held, as shall be provided for by the by-laws.

ARTICLE VIII.

A member may be expelled for unfaithful, immoral or unworthy conduct, by the votes of two-thirds of the voting members present; but eighteen of the voting members shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the purpose of such trial, which shall not be held, unless a written notice of the facts charged shall have been given to the party accused, at least thirty days before the time of such trial. It is, however, expressly decreed, that the right, interest and claim of the widow of any expelled member to the benefits accruing from this Society, shall, in no instance, be impaired or defeated by such expulsion, provided all the dues prescribed by the by-laws be regularly paid during the life of any such expelled member, but not otherwise.

ARTICLE IX.

This constitution shall be subscribed by every member at the time of his admission, and the time of his subscribing, with the name of the place of his residence and his age, shall be noted opposite to his name, and each member shall receive a certificate of his membership, certified by the President, and attested by the Secretary; with the seal of the Society affixed, and a printed copy of this constitution and the by-laws.

ARTICLE X.

It is unalterably and irrevocably decreed, that, if any unforeseen accident or other cause should ever occasion a dissolution of this Society, which, however, shall not be understood to have taken place, until all the members thereof, and all and every the widows, entitled to the benefits thereof, shall have become extinct, the funds of this Society, without diminution or defalcation, shall be divided into two equal parts; one moiety whereof shall be transferred to, and become the property of, such committee or committees of the several Congregations of the United Brethren in the United States, as shall have been appointed by the voting members of such Congregations respectively, to take care of their widows, in trust and for the use of such widows; and the other moiety thereof shall, in like manner, be transferred to such committee or committees in the aforesaid Congregations, which shall have been appointed in the same manner as aforesaid, to take care of the education of their children and to administer the funds established for that purpose, in trust and for the use of their schools; each of these moieties to be divided amongst the aforesaid committees, in proportion to the number of families resident in the aforesaid Congregations respectively at the time of such transfer; on condition, nevertheless, that the said funds, so as aforesaid transferred to the said committees, be kept entire and unimpaired by them and every and each of them, and the interest thereof only be applied to the uses and purposes aforesaid. And to the faithful execution of this article, according to its true intent and meaning, we, the subscribers, and each of us, hold ourselves, collectively and individually, firmly bound.

SECTION 5.. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said Society shall have power to make by-laws, as well as to carry into effect the provisions herein contained, as for the effectual and convenient conduct of the affairs of the Society; Provided, That the same be not repugnant to the Constitution and Laws of the United States or of this Commonwealth: And Provided, That no by-laws shall be enacted, altered or repealed, but at a stated meeting, nor unless fifteen of the voting members shall be present at such stated meeting: And Provided, That the by-laws already made and now in force in the said Society, shall continue and be in force until altered or repealed in manner herein before declared: And Provided also, That no by-law shall ever be made to alter the nature, or impair the binding force of the foregoing articles of the Constitution hereby enacted.

act shall be so construed as to impair or diminish the responsibility of any individual or individuals, for the payment of any debts contracted for this Society, and by its order, for which he would have been otherwise liable.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT, SHOWING DIVIDENDS PAID, STATUS OF CAPITAL, ETC., IN SUCCESSIVE YEARS, 1772-1915.

The accounts of the Widows' Society were kept according to the English monetary system from 1770 to 1813, except during the year 1804. In that year the accounts were kept according to the Federal coinage reckoning which, by act of Congress nearly twenty years before, had established the dollar as the monetary unit for the United States. In 1805, however, the old method of reckoning in pounds, shillings and pence was restored to the records of the Society and continued almost a decade longer. From 1814 onward the accounts were reckoned according to the U. S. currency. The long continuance of the old method of reckoning is attributable to the fact that scientific plans and methods make slow headway against popular prejudice and the force of common habits. Many years elapsed after Congress had fixed the character of the Federal coinage before the citizens of the country generally could be persuaded to replace their familiar reckoning according to pounds, shillings and pence by that of dollars and cents; and that in spite of the fact that there was not a single coin to express the value of pounds, shillings and pence. Moreover, scarcely any two or three States reckoned alike the number of shillings to the dollar. The expression "Pound Currency of Pennsylvania," in common use in those days and occurring in the original articles of the Widows' Society, meant simply the rating of the pound in Pennsylvania. The average value of the pound in this state, during the time covered by the Widows' Society records, appears to have been $2.66. On this basis the equivalent values in dollars and cents are computed in this table.

For the period of nearly fifty years two classes of members were recognized in the Society. Those of the second class paid but half the entrance fee required of members of the first class. Consequently, widows of members of the second class received but half the annuity paid to widows of members of the first class. In 1791 it appeared that there would be no further accessions to the second class membership, and in 1820 all notices of members of this class cease in the records of the Society.

Up to the year 1818, assessments were paid by the members of the Society. These usually apportioned a tax or contribution of 5 sh. per annum for members of the first class and 2 sh. 6 d. for members of the second class. In the year 1818, it was settled definitely and to general satisfaction, "that, in the future, every applicant for membership, without regard to his own or his wife's age, shall pay $50.00 and nothing more thereafter."

Annuities were paid during the years 1772-1777 to Poor Widows, according to Article 14 of the original 21 Articles of the Society. "And in as much as the Motive of this Brotherly Association is no other but such Compassion and Concern for Widows as is pleasing to Almighty God, it is agreed that from the first Tuesday in January, 1772, One Annuity in two Half-yearly Payments shall be given and distributed to and among such Widows of the Bethlehem Widow-House, as on account of their old Age or Infirmities are not able to earn sufficient to support themselves in the Necessaries of Life, and have no Prospect of any other Relief or Assistance. But whether this Annuity shall be one of the First or Second Class, the Members of the Half-yearly Meetings shall determine by a Majority of Votes; for it is intended that on account of this Charity, the Annuities of Widows belonging to this Association, shall at no time be charged or defaulted, nor any extraordinary Contribution required from the members of this Association." After 1777 no such appropriations could be voted.

Differences in the amounts of annuity paid to the several widows in Class I or Class II, respectively, in any one year are to be accounted for by the fact that the annuity payments were apportioned according to the number of months of widowhood of the several beneficiaries in that year.

For more than a century dividends of the Society were declared in January and July. From 1879 onward, they were declared in December and June.
